

Submitted By: Prosunjit Biswas (@01232785)

Expert: Dr. Jaehong Park

1. How do you start a research Project?

-- Do background study, Being comfortable with state-of-the-art work, find problems and needs.

2. What specific tools do you use ?

-- Mostly Google Scholar, publisher's Digital Library (DL), Personal Digital Library

3. How did you gain your expertise with the various tools you use ?

-- Through tutorial, publications and overall by Practice.

4. What are some important experiences you suggest for a novice researcher?

--Critical Thinking, be creative, analytical Skill. After all Try, keep trying, keep trying hard

5. If I wanted to learn how to become a competent researcher, what specific tools would you suggest I work with ?

-- Depends on the types of projects. Never forget google and conference/publication web portals.

6. What personal attributes, you think, help being someone a good researcher ?

-- Passion, patience, persistence.

7. what are the killer attitudes of a horrible researcher ?

-- Being judgmental at the first sight, too much confidence, too much obeisance.