

Expert Researcher: Dr. Ravi Sandhu

Interviewer : Tahmina Ahmed

1. How do you start a research Project?

Try to find important open or unsolved problems. Looking for what is happening in the outside world.

Anticipating new technologies, new problems , new attacks mostly driven by the industrial force

2. What specific tools do you use ?

Google, Springer, ACM, IEEE, OpenSource Software, Specifically latex powerpoint. Bibtex Endnote, PdfMarkup

3. How did you gain your expertise with the various tools you use ?

Practice and Experiencing

4. What are some important experiences you suggest for a novice researcher?

Participation of conferences, reach beyond courses, reading , search and investigation , good writing reading and presentation skill.

5. If I wanted to learn how to become a competent researcher, what specific tools would you suggest I work with ?

Basic system knowledge, Always update oneself with current technology and hot area of his field.

6.What personal attributes, you think, help being someone a good researcher ?

Passion, patience, persistence.

7. what are the killer attitudes of a horrible researcher ?

Being judgmental at the first sight, over confident, too much obeisance.